“ I am so saddened. God was directing me...I was just thinking about Bob for some reason as we used to work out at the McCluer North gym over the summer of '86 in the evenings. Went to Facebook to connect and I saw that he had passed...no, no, no. He was always a friendly face, had a joking, fun attitude, and a very nice person. R.I.P. my friend.

“ Bobby was a good friend of mine. During the years knowing him many, many laughs were shared. A few of the favorite memories were when Bobby and several other friends would play dice. Always had to watch his roll hed'd yell 5000 and hurry to pick up the dice! Or there were the times playing dice or cards he'd be losing the game,he would stand up, crumble the score sheet and say, "I Quit,"he hated to lose! But we all would just laugh. He was also a very good cook especially the italian dishes. He loved his dogs too Sexy who passed away several years ago and I am sure she was waiting for him at Rainbow Bridge and now there is Skeye, aka: "Wiggle Butt," as I called her will surely miss him. I am saddened with his loss but remembering the good times and laughs will get many of us through.

Bobby definitely was beautiful person who earned his wings way too soon. I am going to miss you Bobby. 💔 May you Rest In Peace My Deepest Sympathy to his family and friends.
