“ Robert Shramek was a great neighbor, one of our first friends when we moved from St. Louis. He and Francis were always there in times of need. especially when my father had a stroke. He was home so arrived while i was still on the phone. I felt such great relief to see him walking through the door. Sorry to hear he is no longer with us. Prayers for the family.

“ So, you don't get many heroes in your lifetime, but I was lucky to have Robert Shramek as one of mine. Bob and Frances took me in as one of their own. Scolded me when I needed it and praised me even if I didn't deserve it. They will never completely understand how much they impacted my life. I am grateful for the all of the times Bob and I spent together hunting squirrels, cutting wood and just having a compassionate father figure in our time together. Our community has lost a great treasure and I hope to be half the man he was to our community and my family in his honor. Bob was there for me in a few of my darkest times and I will never forget that.

" Fare you well, fare you well

I love you more than words can tell

Listen to the river sing sweet songs

To rock my soul"
