Robert “Bob” Eugene Vaughn, Sr., was born November 14, 1933 to Georgia Elvessa Hawkins of Frankford. Bob graduated from Douglas High School in Hannibal in 1950. In 1955, he married Marietta Fay Elbert in Bowling Green. She survives. Bob worked 15 years at the Robey-Robinson Lumber Co. in New London. He then worked at the Holcim Cement Co. (formerly known as Dundee Cement Co.) in Clarksville as a heavy equipment operator for 28 years, retiring in 1994 due to ill health. Bob was a member of the Second Christian Church in Frankford and came to know the Lord at a young age and forever kept the faith. In his latter years, he worshipped at the Second Christian Church in New London with his wife, Rev. Faye Vaughn as his Pastor. He remained faithful to the cause of Christ until his passing on July 8, 2011. He spent his entire life living in Frankford, being reared mainly in his Grandmother Amy Livingston’s home. He was the greatest cheerleader to his grandchildren and all their academic and sporting endeavors, regularly attending whatever event his grandchildren were involved in. He will truly be missed by his family and friends for his fun-loving and wittiness approach to life. Also surviving Bob are 13 children Joy (Anthony) Brown, Robert (Amy) E.
