Ruby Loree Akers Altizer died peacefully in her sleep at Maple Grove Lodge in Louisiana, Missouri on June 11, 2023 at the age of 90. Ruby had recently celebrated her 90th birthday surrounded by family and friends.

Ruby is predeceased by her parents, Lottie and Dick Akers, her brothers Jimmy Akers of Eolia, John Frank Akers of Troy and Billy Akers of Whiteside, and her beloved husband, Jack Altizer. Ruby was born and raised on a farm in Eolia, Missouri and graduated from Eolia High School in 1951 where she played basketball. She worked for several years as a bank teller in St. Louis before marrying Jack Altizer on May 23, 1959 in St. Clement Catholic Church. As newlyweds, Ruby and Jack lived in Bowling Green before moving to O'Fallon, Missouri and then Derby, Kansas. They returned to Bowling Green in the early 1970s, where Ruby raised her children and grandchildren and lived the rest of her life.

Ruby was an animal lover and thoroughly enjoyed spending time outdoors. She loved attending her children and grandchildren's sporting events as well as visiting her many friends around town. Her main joy in life was spending time with her family. She was a great cook, preparing large quantities of delicious food at each family meal and passed down her famous homemade noodle recipe to her daughter and granddaughters. She was a member of St. Clement Church throughout her life.

“ My heart goes out to Ruby's family and friends. I will miss my funny, sassy aunt who I loved growing up around and especially her laugh. She was so loved by all who knew her. I wanted to share this picture of the Akers Family as it is dear to my heart. I will miss you Aunt Ruby even though I know your finally at peace with Uncle Jack who I know you missed so much.
