

Sr., Thomas P. (Tom) Willemarc

December 10, 2013

Memorial Service Saturday December 14, 2013 11:30 am First Presbyterian Church (Bowling Green) Visitation Saturday December 14, 2013 10:30 am First Presbyterian Church (Bowling Green) Thomas P. (Tom) Willemarck Sr., of Bowling Green, passed away December 10, 2013 at his home. Memorial services will be held at 11:30 am on Saturday, December 14, 2013 at the First Presbyterian Church in Bowling Green with Student Pastor Joe Siefkas officiating under the direction of the church and family. Memorial visitation will be held from 10:30 am until time of services. Tom was born May 13, 1945, in Reedsburg, WI, the son of Robert A. Sr. and Catherine A. Green Willemarck. On August 8, 1970 he married Marilyn Fay Ferguson at the St. Alphonsus Catholic Church. She survives. Other survivors include two sons Thomas (Tiny) Willemarck Jr. and wife Annell of Curryville, Eric Willemarck and wife Danielle of Ursa, IL; daughter Marie Madziarek of Arizona; grandchildren Katrina Cash (Jason), Markie (Eddie) Penn, Kandace (Roy) Lang, Jared Feather, Kayla (Matt) Nation, Travis Nation, Thomas Willemarck III, Elizabeth (Bizzy) Yannielli, Chariti Willemarck, Isaiah Harris, Damian J Penn; brother Charles Willemarck (Bonnie) of Daggett, MI; eight great grandchildren; brother-in-laws Lenny, Denny, Wade and Virgil; sister-in-laws Beth and Melissa; mother and father-in-law Al and wife Pat Ferguson of Troy; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends. Mr. Willemarck was preceded in death by his parents; sister Martha Rose; and four brothers Jimmy, Donnie, Bobby and Paul. Tom grew up in Round Lake, IL and later moved to Frankford

in 1988. He was a Christian. Tom worked at Champion pre-cast the last fifteen years and loved to hunt, fish, play cards and was a master carpenter. Most of all he loved his grandkids. Donations may be made to the Community Loving Care Hospice in lieu of flowers. Cremation rites are under the direction of Mudd-Veach funeral home in Bowling Green.