“ I visited with George at the Veterans Home in Mexico. We became best friends. He liked to talk about fishing with me and I told him fishing stories. He always got after me because I like to release the fish instead of keeping them to eat. It depressed me when he died but I know he is up there in heaven. I miss him a lot!

“ George was a terrific friend to me! He was related to my late husband , Fletcher. One snowy Day about 42 years ago, Fletcher decided it was time for me to know Doris and George. So we took off with our two year old son, Kyle Nd our older son, John to visit them. We lived in Elsberry at that time so it was only a short trip to Bowling Green. However we slid off the road when we reached the country road to their house. I don't remember how we ended up getting in touch with George but he came and pulled us out of the ditch and we followed him to their home. That began a beautiful friendship which included several trips together. We always looked forward to seeing him again. And he was always the clown to keep us laughing. I miss those good times May you Rest In Peace, George.

“ My Uncle George was such a character. I have memories from childhood of his driving at about 100 MPH to Puxico with my sisters & me on board to Puxico from our home near Kinder. I'm so thankful that we were reacquainted these past few years. Newer memories, same George. Rest in peace. Sharon Barker Downs
