“ I remember when we would visit grandma Cindy's house on the week-ends and take a hike just us girl. We would climb up the cliffs, down around the creek until we saw a snake, then we were ready to go back to the house. We would also see who could call first on washing the dishes, because the first ones got all of the easy ones. Naturally we never won that one. Will miss you much. Hope to see you in glory some day. Love you Peggy Meeker

“ She was a greatly appreciated woman. She helped so many people. You will be missed. I know in school we had so many memories, helping me in class we had so much fun from 5th grade and on you would be there for me Jacob, Skylar and Dolon if someone did anything to us. You were a very sweet lady. Always waiting at the end of the side walk at Clopton for the busses everyday and you never complained about anything never said anything to anyone, you always was making sure everyone was happy and taken care of. There's so much I could list to her.

You will definitely be missed your children are great just like you. Your a blessed young lady. Ashley Tracy is a very smart young lady for who she is and what she does for her job. I wish I could have her technology and brain to think like her. I did enjoy the tech classes with her, and spending the classes with you, Mrs Hays and Mr Anderson
