Tom had a very strong work ethic which he passed on to his kids and he had a very strong drive to provide for his family. He was the best husband, father and grandfather anyone could ask for.

Through Tom's life he instilled many valuable life lessons in his children including: his strong work ethic, his love of reading, family first, his love of learning new things, and life is what you make it. He is now at peace and has joined his family and beloved dog Izzy in the next life.

“ I will never forget the time we were at your house (naturally) and Tom had you and Mom paint his fingernails. He wanted to find out just how hard was it to go to the bathroom with wet nails. He is also the one who taught me about the dangers of pigs.

I am very blessed that I got to see him once more this summer, and happy Todd for to meet him.
