She enjoyed their horses, special pets, and walking on their farm daily, often 2-3 miles a day. She also loved traveling with Randal often driving to numerous states to see the countryside. She also enjoyed watching Randal during his cutting horse activities. She loved children and enjoyed taking their great nieces & nephew on special trips during the summer. She was like a grandmother to them.

Virginia loved Jesus and enjoyed reading her Bible. She was a member of the former Immanuel Baptist Church in Bowling Green and served as a treasurer and enjoyed helping in planning meals/special events. She enjoyed listening to gospel country music and watching Biblical programs at home with her husband.
