“ I grew up in Millwood and worked for Joe at Central Elevator in the summer of 1968. I remember most an expression of bemused exasperation that was about what I deserved. He was a good guy, and I was so sorry to read of his passing. I didn't know he was valedictorian, or of his interest in plants; he was obviously a man of many talents. It sounds like he and Judy had a wonderful family, and I'm glad to hear it. I'm sure he will be much missed, and I hope all will find consolation in his memory.
