Zella Mae Houchins, age 86, of Moscow Mills passed away January 18, 2017 at her home.

Funeral services will be held 2:00 p.m., Saturday, January 21, 2017 at the Bibb-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green with Pastor Mark Spence officiating. Burial will be in the Frankford Fairview Cemetery. Visitation will be held from 12:00 – 2:00 p.m. Saturday at the Bibb-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green.

Zella Mae was born August 7, 1930 in Frankford the daughter of Homer Dee and Edna Rebecca Feith Brown. On August 20, 1948 she married Albert Gene Houchins. He preceded her in death on October 7, 2002. Survivors include two daughters Charlotte Jean Rowell (Joe) of rural Louisiana, Virginia “Ginny” Lee Watkins (Butch) of Moscow Mills; six grandchildren Gary Joseph Frey (Brandy), Melanie Diane Myers (Tony), Jessica Lynn Dolbeare (Rodney), Chris Watkins (Lydia), Ashley Jean McIntyre (Adam), Michelle Broyles (Jason); eighteen great grandchildren; and one brother Larry Lee Brown (Kay) of Auxvasse. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, son Lynn Dee Houchins July 1952; and a great grandchild Joshua Broyles.

Zella Mae grew up and lived in Frankford until 1977 when she moved to Troy then in 2003 she moved to Moscow Mills. She was a member of the Moscow Mills United Methodist Church, the IOOF Rebecca Lodge – American Legion Auxiliary, Presbyterian Missionary Society and the Director of WIBC Bowling Organization. She was a homemaker all of her life and enjoyed bowling, crafts, reading, bird watching, and helping people. Zella Mae will be truly missed by all her family and friends. We have comfort in knowing that she is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Memorials may be made to the Mercy Hospice or the Moscow Mills United Methodist Church.
